

I fully support that the strongest possible rules should stay in effect for the NJ Do Not Call List. Individuals signing up for such lists are specifically trying to eliminate ALL unsolicited phone calls, even those from companies they may happened to have done business with in the past. Further, I would support additional restrictions that limit or eliminate unsolicited calls from Survey takers as well. Thank you.